Reception with Phylicia Ghee

Hackerman Artist in Residence

Meet the Pratt's 2025 Hackerman Artist in Residence, Phylicia Ghee. Phylicia is an interdisciplinary visual artist, photographer and curator whose work documents transition, explores healing, rites of passage, ritual and genetic memory. She thrives on creating immersive worlds that explore interiority, both physically and psychologically. During Phylicia's residency, she will explore themes of lineage, memory, and ancestral connection with our library visitors.

Join us for this free reception at Current Space. Everyone is welcome!

Upcoming Programs: Be the first to learn about Phylicia's upcoming community programs, workshops, and exhibitions.

Art, Bites and Beverages: Enjoy snacks, beverages and explore Phylicia's work.
